

SDD HSC PROJECT STORYBOARD BY PATRICE HARAPETI, NATHAN HARRIS AND RONAN FITZPATRICK

The brightness slider allows the user to change the overall brightness of the program to suit their individual need which is dependent on their eye sight, lighting of their environment, time of day and the quality of their display monitor.

to select only one star classification.

☐ C
☐ B
☐ A
☐ F

☐ K
☐ M

Submit

This messagebox appears over the following screen as error trapping. It prevents an empty star classification input by the user.

If correct, this window appears over the previous slide

Results:

This classification is:

Calculating....

Experience Gained: Value XP

Level 6

Close

This label will either display the word "Correct" or the word "Incorrect"

If the user incorrectly guesses the star's class. The value of experienced gained will be equal to 0.

Players current level

(Hide Window)

Progress Bar, the end of the bar signifying the next level the player will reach after correctly guessing more star classifications

